Table of Contents

Authors

Preface by the General Editors of
"The Common Core of European Private Law" Project

Preface by the Editors in
Chief of the Case-Based Assessment

Introduction

Luisa Antoniolli / Francesca Fiorentini

1. From the Europeanization of Private Law to the Project of a European Common Frame of Reference
   1.1. Towards a European Private Law
   1.2. The Academic Groups Working for a European Private Law
   1.3. The EU Institutions and Harmonization of Private Law

2. The Draft Common Frame of Reference and Its Features
   2.1. The Draft Common Frame of Reference
   2.2. Content
   2.3. Scope, Sources and Structure
   2.4. The Drafting Process and Its Method
   2.5. Language and Style
   2.6. Purposes
   2.7. Possible Use of the DCFR by the EU Institutions
   2.8. Fundamental Principles, Overriding Principles and Clashing Values

3. The Common Frame of Reference and the EU Legal Process:
   Institutional Boundaries, EU Competences and Social Justice
   3.1. EC/EU Competences and Legal Harmonization:
        Market v. Social Values
   3.2. The DCFR as a Toolbox or a Code – “Constitutional” Implications

4. The Common Core of European Private Law and the Case-Based Assessment of the Draft Common Frame of Reference
   4.1. Project’s Aims
   4.2. Method
   4.3. Results and Long-Term Goals
Case-Based Assessments

Unfair Terms
CHRIS WILLET

1. General Introduction

2. Negotiated, Non Negotiated Terms and Standard Terms. Case 1

4. Coverage by Reference To Substantive Effects of Terms (B). Case 3

5. Concluding Comments

Change of Circumstances
VALENTINA BINEVA

1. Introduction

2. Three Cases
Case 1: Hardship
Case 2: Force majeure
Case 3: Change of circumstances in aleatory contract

3. Concluding Remarks

Plurality of Debtors
SONJA MEIER

1. Three Cases
Case 1: Forms of plurality of debtors
Case 2: Effect of prescription of creditor’s claim against one co-debtor
Case 3: Effect of creditor’s release in favour of one co-debtor

2. General Observations

Sales
ROBERTA PELEGGI

1. Three Cases
Case 1: Lack of promised qualities
Case 2: Passing of risk
Case 3: Exclusion or limitation of buyer’s rights in case of lack of conformity of goods

2. Comparison and Evaluation

Lease of Goods
GRZEGORZ PANEK

1. Three Cases
Case 1: Lease for definite and indefinite period
Case 2: Financial leasing
Case 3: Lack of conformity of the leased good

2. Final Remarks

Mandate
CARLOS GÓMEZ LIGÜERRE

1. Introduction
1.1. A Wide and Unified Concept of Mandate
1.2. Implied Mandate, Right to Compensation and Gratuitous Representative
1.3. Termination of the Mandate Relationship

2. Three Cases
Case 1: Irrevocable mandate
Case 2: Consequences of acting beyond mandate
Case 3: Conflict of interests

Personal Security
SOPHIE VIGNERON / SIMONE WONG

1. Three Cases
Case 1: Dependent personal security in professional context
Case 2: Dependent personal security in consumer context
Case 3: Independent personal security in consumer context

2. Comparative Analysis
4. A Problematic Concept of Contractual Justice
   4.1. Justice “without regard to the person” 349
   4.2. What Justice for Social Contracts? 350
   4.3. National Social Law as Distributive Contractual Justice 352
   4.4. “The DCFR Is Particularly Concerned to Promote What Aristotle Termed Corrective Justice” 357

5. Ignoring Labour Contracts 360
   5.2. The Social Dimension of the Commercial Contract Between the Temporary Work Agency and the User 364

6. Ignoring Consumer Credit Contracts 366
   6.1. Consumer Credit in Modern Contract Law 368
   6.2. The Asocial Concept of Consumer Protection 371
   6.3. The Impact for General Contract Law 373
   6.4. The Failure to Provide Answers for Responsible Credit

7. Conclusion 375

Concluding Remarks
LUISA ANTONIOLLI / FRANCESCA FIORENTINI

Part I: Comparative Factual Results 377

Part II: Comparative Comments 410

Abbreviations 415

Bibliography 419

Case Law 467