Figure 1: Study areas in dark grey. Blue dots show the places where data was collected. Southeast study areas are characterised by rainfall distributed uniformly through the year. Southwest areas are dominated by less intense rainfall.