Citation for published version

Link to record in KAR

https://kar.kent.ac.uk/88202/

Document Version

UNSPECIFIED

Copyright & reuse

Content in the Kent Academic Repository is made available for research purposes. Unless otherwise stated all content is protected by copyright and in the absence of an open licence (eg Creative Commons), permissions for further reuse of content should be sought from the publisher, author or other copyright holder.

Versions of research

The version in the Kent Academic Repository may differ from the final published version. Users are advised to check http://kar.kent.ac.uk for the status of the paper. Users should always cite the published version of record.

Enquiries

For any further enquiries regarding the licence status of this document, please contact: researchsupport@kent.ac.uk

If you believe this document infringes copyright then please contact the KAR admin team with the take-down information provided at http://kar.kent.ac.uk/contact.html
Citizens, with their face masks, are seen observing the novel coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic measures rules, in Brussels, Belgium on June 03, 2020.

Foreign Policy, and Vaccine Diplomacy,

OLGA KRASNYAK

Share:

have to deal with and come out stronger and more humane as a tribal group, country, religion or ummah.

A subtle yet distinct change of tone concerning words and actions of faith can be observed over the last worship and its function in society.

for some spiritual meaning to make sense of this are lamenting not being able to go (such as the closure of worship in a time of immense socio-political and economic change. In other words, those that are looking difficulty in not being able to visit a place of ecting the frequent, spiritual minded ff the most rational in the balance of faith and science (keeping one's prayers while following social followed without incident around the entire world. Religious and community leaders have been among In comparison the current closure of Mosques, Churches, Synagogues and Temples has largely been gatherings (in the U.S. many clandestinely got together in fields) and the Hajj went ahead as normal.

Christian society took to beating and punishing themselves (self-flagellation) as well as others in cruel plague of Europe and the 'Spanish' Flu or 1918 pandemic. During the medieval plagues a segment of ect of locking down borders (however necessary this may have been to stop the spread of coronavirus) of France are just a handful of examples of pre-existing instincts laid bare. In this context, the domino kind of accommodation in India; and people from large urban areas being met with hostility in rural areas directed at people of Far-East Asian descent in North America; foreign nationals unable to secure any Poverty is rampant with post-industrial cities and smaller regions dealing in the U.S. many clandestinely got together in fields) and the Hajj went ahead as normal.

The immediate impulse to revert to late 19th century. Across the political spectrum, this is a period of the unknown; the 'neo-

...