Authors' contributions: The initial idea for a scoping review on the topic came from SP, A-M T and SH. The core sections of the review were formulated by BS, NB, SP, A-M T and SH. The search strategy was devised by BS and Abigail Heath (AH). Screening records was undertaken by BS, NB, and SP, and any discrepancies were resolved through discussion with A-M T and SH. Data from these records were extracted by BS who also undertook the qualitative thematic analysis, with NB and SP examining the qualitative coding and naming of thematic domains for consistency. BS designed all figures and tables, with comments and suggestions from NB and SP. Preparation of the manuscript was undertaken by BS, with considerable input from all authors.
